Sunday Reset (10 minutes)

1. The ONE thing that must happen this week:

2. What meetings or deadlines are fixed?

3. What can I say no to?

4. What does a good week look like?

Task Breakdown

Pick one complex task. Break it down.

The big task

Smallest possible steps (5–20 min each)

Step 1: _____

Step 2: _____

Step 3: _____

Step 4: _____

Step 5: _____

Step 6: _____

Which step takes the least energy? Do that one first. Build momentum.

Body Doubling Session

Partner: _____ Date: _____ Time: _____

What I'll work on: _____

What they'll work on: _____

Rules: 60–90 min. Mute mics. Cameras optional. Mid-point check-in: 30 seconds each.

End: each person says what they finished. Your brain needs to register completion.

Did the Thing — Win Log

Mon: _____

Tue: _____

Wed: _____

Thu: _____

Fri: _____

Small things count. "Answered three emails" counts. Your brain forgets wins. Write them down.

- What got pushed? _____
- One thing to change next week: _____

This Month

Income this month	€ _____
Expenses	€ _____
Tax set-aside (30%)	€ _____
Take-home	€ _____

Every time you get paid: log it. Move 30% to a separate account. Don't touch it.

Bad Brain Day Protocol

The procedure 1. Say it: "Today's a bad brain day." 2. Pick ONE small task. Do only that. 3. Can't? Shower. Eat. Outside 10 min. 4. Try the small task again. 5. Still can't? Maintenance day. Low-energy stuff. 6. No guilt. Tomorrow is another shot.	Overwhelm Procedure 1. Close all tabs. 2. Write down everything in your head. 3. Circle 3 things that matter this week. 4. Cross out everything else. 5. Pick the smallest step from circled items. 6. Do that one thing. Repeat.

Monthly Review

What got done this month? (List everything — you did more than you think)

What kept getting pushed to next week?

What part of Dopakit did I actually use? What did I ignore?

ONE thing I'll change next month:
